The Big Decisions

PINK TREE

THE SELF

What are my daily habits that will strengthen my four trees? How do I invest in myself daily to create the best version of me?

THE WIFE CHOICE

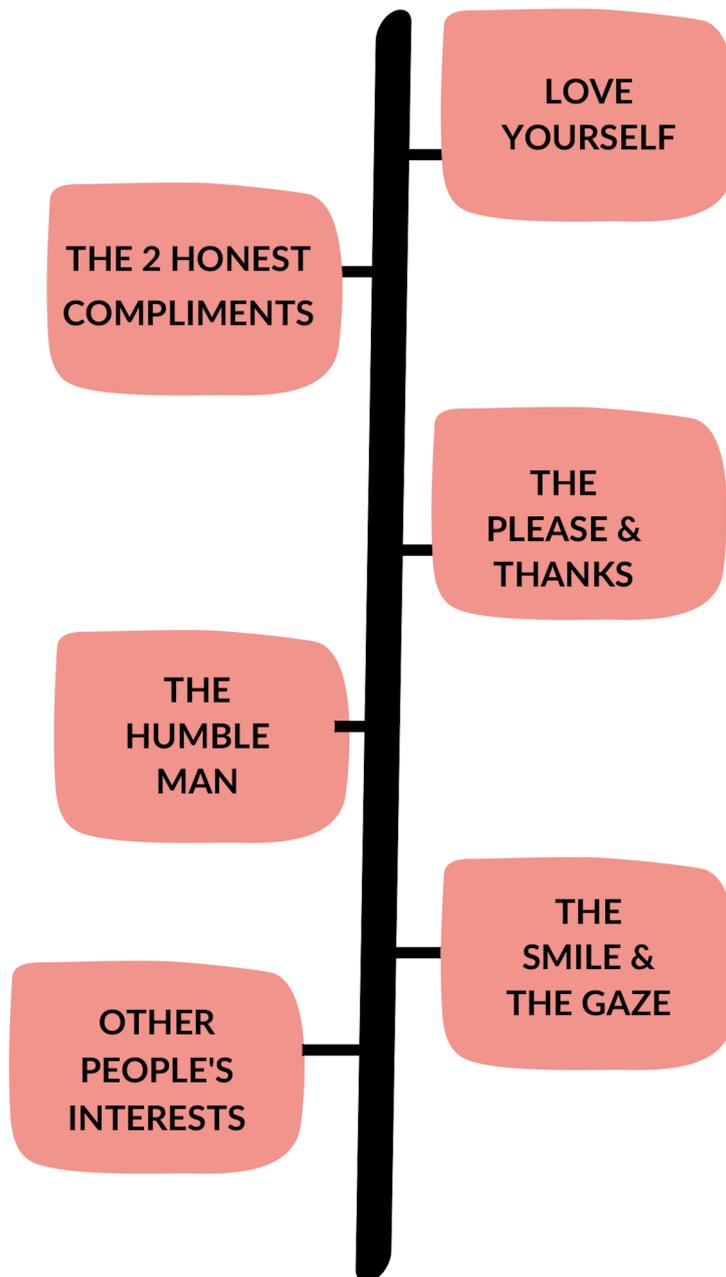

How will the wife I marry impact the four trees of my life?

THE 5 CLOSEST FRIENDS

Who are my five closest friends, and how do they impact the four trees of my life?

THE FAMILY IMPACT

How did the family I grew up in, influence my perception of critical areas in my life? And how will I influence the perception of my kids?

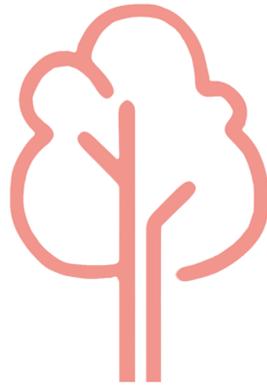

The Pink Actions

LOVE YOURSELF

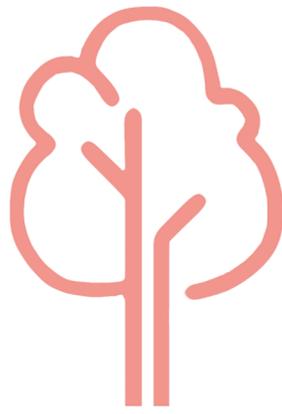

The first action you need to do daily to keep your pink tree strong is to love yourself. By loving yourself and being confident with who you are, people around you will respect you and want to know you better. So, every day when you wake up, I want you to be proud of who you are. Look at yourself in the mirror and be happy with what you see. If something that is under your control bothers you, please take the necessary actions to get rid of it now. You are a young man, the most intelligent and capable species to ever live on this planet. There are no excuses not to take the actions required to get what you want.

THE 2 COMPLIMENTS

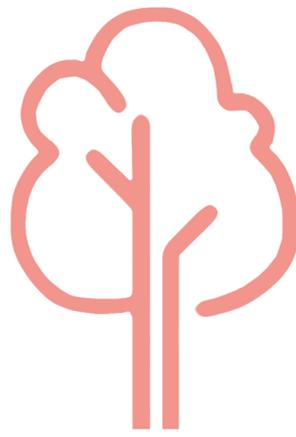

People are begging for compliments, and those who give them immediately increase the likelihood of being liked.

So why haven't you adapted this habit yet? Compliments are free and leverage-friendly. With a compliment, you could build a strong relationship that could change your life either on a personal or financial level in the future. So, guys, you can't afford not to do the second pink action daily. Every day, give two honest compliments to the people you interact with.

THE PLEASE & THANKS

By using these two simple words every day, it could change the way people see you and lead you to a greater future. Being polite and kind to everyone will make people like you. Whether we like it or not, we are social animals who appreciate kindness. When we encounter someone who is polite and kind, we feel good in their presence. They make us feel respected, and as social animals, we love that. So, pink action 3 is simple, make it a priority to become the kindest and most polite person you know.

THE HUMBLE MAN

If I were to choose a single characteristic that I love in people, it would be humility. I have the utmost respect for those who have achieved great things in their lives but have never lost their humility. So, guys, one of the most important action you can take daily is to be a humble person with goals. Being humble while striving for big goals is your best approach in this life. If you consistently act with humility towards your goals, the future holds great promises for you.

THE SMILE & THE GAZE

Smile. It is the single most effective act that can make the people around you accepted. What if you meet someone with a beautiful smile who looks into your eyes? That simple act of smiling is the fastest and most effective way to make someone like you. It is even possible for a single smile to make someone fall in love. How would you feel if one of the most beautiful women in the world looked into your eyes and smiled at you? You might feel butterflies in your stomach, one of the best feelings a human being can experience in life. And all of that can be triggered by a single smile accompanied by a warm gaze.

OTHER PEOPLE'S INTERESTS.

If you want to earn the respect of the people around you, you must talk about what they care about. Ask them about their interests. Give attention when they are talking and look them in the eyes. Make them feel that you care about what they are talking about. Don't interrupt them; genuinely care and listen carefully. That is the smartest thing you can do in a conversation. Why? First, because the person who is speaking feels respected and important. Second, you learn things about this person that can help you evaluate them better. Third, this person will enjoy your company because you make them feel important—the number one feeling that people love to experience.
